

Guinea Solar Container Houses for Sale

Overview

Where can I buy a container home?

MODS is located in Wisconsin, but they are one of the few container home builders we've found that will ship worldwide. They do not post a price list on their website, but interested parties are encouraged to contact them for details, as prices vary based on customization options.

Are Eco Container homes a good choice?

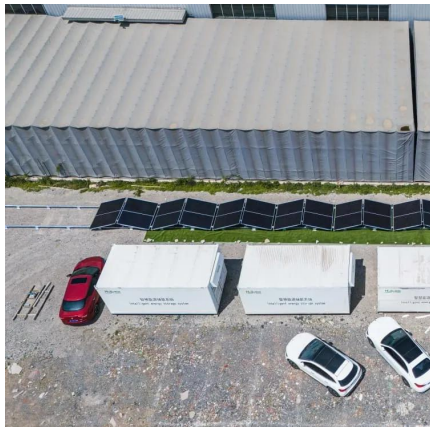

The Eco Container Home models are great if you are looking for a simple, modern new home at their most affordable price. These come in 20-foot or 40-foot sizes and are installed with electric wiring, plumbing, HVAC system, water heater, shower, doors, and windows.

Can you build a container home?

Most states allow container homes, but every municipality has different building codes and zoning laws. In some cities/counties, it might be a pretty straightforward process; in others, you might have to jump through hoops to get all the necessary permits.
